

Grievance procedures

1. In the event of a complaint about the results of exam

According to article Thirty-Nine of the regulations for study and examination regulations

The council of the college that teaches the course, if necessary, approves the re-marking of the answer papers within a period not exceeding the beginning of the second semester exams, according to the following procedures:

- 1.1 The application period shall not exceed three days from the date of announcing the final results of the semester in which the student wishes to repeat the correction for the course he studied in the same semester.
- 1.2 The student fills out a special form, explaining the justifications for the re-correction request, and submits it to the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs.
- 1.3 Pay the due fees in accordance with the fees list.

2. In the event of a grievance against the result of PSW:

According to article Twenty-Three of the regulations for study and examination regulations

The student has the right to review the course instructor within a week of announcing the result of the final semester work, and if he is not satisfied:

- 2.1 He submits his objection within three days of the expiry of the aforementioned week period to the head of the department or the vice dean for academic affairs to consider the re-evaluation of the student's semester work.

2.2 The head of the department or the vice dean for academic affairs may seek the assistance of any faculty member in the department to consider the student's objection within a week from the date of submitting the objection request to him, and his decision in this regard shall be final.

